ABSENT

ALSO PRESENT

Carey Varnado, Legal Counsel
Rick Taylor, Management
Salem Bunkheila, Administration
Jessica Cathey, Administration
Danielle Herrington, Administration

Minutes from Previous Board Meeting

Upon motion made by Traci Rouse and, duly seconded by Andy Stetelman, and after a full discussion, there was a unanimous favorable vote of the Board to approve the Minutes from the previous meeting.

Financial Report

Rick Taylor presented the current Financial Report including the Claims Docket for the Operations and Maintenance, Revenue and Capital Expansion Funds for ratification. A motion was made by Andy Stetelman, duly seconded by Clyde Bryant, and after a full discussion, there was a unanimous favorable vote of the Board to accept the financial reports and ratify the Claims Docket as presented.

Legal Report

Attorney Carey Varnado informed the Board that the Hattiesburg Convention Commission has taken a position in the case United Daughters of Confederacy v. City of Hattiesburg to protect the interest of the Hattiesburg Convention Commission and its plans for expansion. During the preliminary court proceedings, the plaintiff disclosed that it had no interest in operating the Hattiesburg Zoo.

Old Business

Salem Bunkheila gave the Board an update on the Commission facilities. He introduced The Lawn at Lake Terrace a new outdoor venue on the grounds of the Lake Terrace Convention Center. This new concept will allow the Commission to host larger concerts and other entertainment events with socially distanced tables in increments of 4, 6 or 8. The new venue will debut this weekend with a Mixed Martial Arts Event. He informed the Board that the Hattiesburg Convention Commission has applied to receive a Cares Act Grant to purchase Synexis Spheres to be placed in our museums for reopening. This system will eliminate air-borne and surface contaminants and allow for a safe reopen of the facilities in the Sixth Street Museum District. The grant has been reviewed and is awaiting approval. He also announced to the Board that the Lake Terrace Convention Center would host Dinosaurs around the World: Passport to Pangea exhibit beginning in October through January 2021.

Rick Taylor informed the Board that the Saenger Theater remains closed, but plans to host the Rocky Horror Picture Show out of doors in October. He added that the Zoo is still operating with a slightly reduced staff and attendance has continued to be solid. The African American Military History Museum is set to reopen in October and will participate in the Mobile Street Festival by providing a drive-in viewing of the movie Black Panther. He also announced that the Smith Drug sign and awning will be placed on the building soon and the restoration of the building is underway. The Pocket Museum (Mississippi's Tiniest Museum) is the Hattiesburg Convention Commission's newest facility, which debuted in August 2020 with an exhibition of pocketknives. Since its inception, it has welcomed over 11,000 viewers and attracted the attention of the Washington Post. The Eureka Interpretive Wall Committee met and decided that since the Eureka School Museum would include substantial Civil Rights Era content, the Interpretive Wall would broaden its scope and base its presentation on African American Life over Hattiesburg's history.

Rick Taylor gave the Board an update on the Zoo NW Quadrant construction. He announced that the Giraffe exhibit opening has been postponed until the spring of 2021 due to delays in specialty equipment manufacturing.

New Business

Rick Taylor informed the Board that the Hattiesburg Convention Commission would like approval to apply for a Mississippi Department of Archives and History Community Heritage Grant for the Historic Eureka School Interpretive Wall. Upon a motion by Aubrey Lucas, duly seconded by Clyde Bryant and after a full discussion, there was a unanimous favorable vote of the Board to authorize the application for the Community Heritage Preservation Grant Program for the Historic Eureka School Interpretive Wall in the amount of $100,000 with a match of $75,000 by the Hattiesburg Convention Commission.

Call for Other New Business

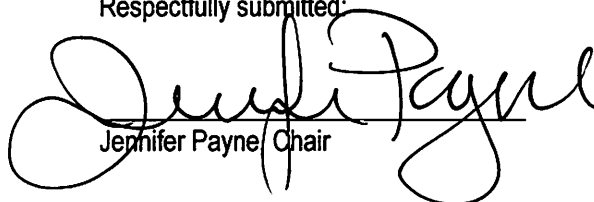

There was no other new business to discuss at this meeting.

Operational Report

All operational matters were discussed in the previous portions of the meeting.

A motion was made by Charles Brown to adjourn the Commission meeting. This motion was seconded by Clyde Bryant and received a unanimous favorable vote, the Commission Meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted:

Jennifer Payne, Chair

Minutes from Previous Board Meeting

Upon motion made by Andy Stetelman and, duly seconded by Aubrey Lucas, and after a full discussion, there was a unanimous favorable vote of the Board to approve the Minutes from the previous meeting.

Financial Report

Rick Taylor presented the current Financial Report including the Claims Docket for the Operations and Maintenance, Revenue and Capital Expansion Funds for ratification. A motion was made by Aubrey Lucas, duly seconded by Charles Brown, and after a full discussion, there was a unanimous favorable vote of the Board to accept the financial reports and ratify the Claims Docket as presented.

Rick Taylor presented the FYE 2021 Budget Proposal. He indicated that for the upcoming fiscal year, due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Commission had to curtail previously allocated funds for several projects and include staff reduction for this new budget period. A motion was made by Charles Brown, duly seconded by Aubrey Lucas, and after a full discussion, there was a unanimous favorable vote of the Board to approve the proposed FYE 2021 Budget.

Legal Report

Attorney Carey Varnado informed the Board that he received correspondence from the Hattiesburg Tourism Commission HTC Attorney indicating that the HTC would like to accept the HCC's offer of donated office spaces through the end of the calendar year. The HTC plans to relocate to other office and vacate the Visitors Center by the end of 2020.

Old Business

Rick Taylor gave the Board a pandemic update of all HCC facilities over the past month. The Hattiesburg Zoo remains operational and the construction of the North West Quadrant is still in progress. The Lake Terrace Convention Center will be a COVID-19 Testing Site for the MS Department of Human Services on Tuesday, July 28, 2020. The Convention Center remains closed with the possibility of some small group meetings and an outdoor event in the upcoming months. The Saenger Theater hosted the Miss Hospitality Pageant this month, but does not foresee re-opening in the near future. The Eureka School will be the site for a private training program through the months of August, September, October and November. The Smith Drug Company building has been stabilized and the Commission is continuing with its rehabilitation. He also discussed a possible tenant for this building upon completion.

New Business

A motion was made by Traci Rouse to consider going into closed session for the purpose of discussing whether to go into executive session for the purpose of discussing real estate contract matters. This motion was seconded by Andy Stetelman and received a unanimous favorable vote of the members present.

During the closed session a motion was made by Aubrey Lucas to go into executive session for the purpose of discussing a real estate matter. This motion was seconded by Traci Rouse and received a unanimous favorable vote of the members present.

No action was taken during the executive session.

A motion was made by Aubrey Lucas to exit the Executive Session, duly seconded by Traci Rouse and after receiving a unanimous favorable vote of the members present, the Executive Session was adjourned and the regular meeting resumed.

The Commission reviewed a request from the Area Development Partnership to amend the current office space lease agreement component which places the Saenger Theater as a Presenting Sponsors of HUBFEST, and change this component to alternative sponsorship options because the ADP cancelled HUBFEST in 2020 and is evaluating this event for future years due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Upon motion by Aubrey Lucas, duly seconded by Andy Stetelman, the Board unanimously approved a motion to offer the ADP an amendment to the current lease agreement to exchange the current Hubfest Presenting Sponsorship ($15,000) in lieu of (a portion of) rent for the same sponsorship value with the ADP becoming an annual sponsor of the Hattiesburg Zoo's LADHA'S CANTINA OVERLOOK (at the Zoo's new Giraffe exhibit) in the amount of $5,000 per year for the remaining three years of the current lease. Further, the Commission agreed to include the following additional incentives to this exchange including private access to the sponsored site, special tours of the exhibit, sponsorship recognition and other use discounts for this site.

Rick Taylor presented the proposed renewal Hattiesburg Zoo Agreement between the Hattiesburg Convention Commission and the City of Hattiesburg. He informed the Board Members that this renewal contract was modified to align with the terminology in use in the Saenger Theater Management Contract and the USO Management Contract to remove the sunset clause. This renewal contract will offer both parties stipulated mechanisms to discontinue the contract agreement at will, thus eliminating the need for a specific contract end date. The same mechanism is in place in all other City-Owned/Commission-Managed facilities.

A motion was made by Andy Stetelman and, duly seconded by Traci Rouse and after a full discussion, there was a unanimous favorable vote of the members present to approve the proposed renewal Hattiesburg Zoo Agreement.
